The Investiture Ceremony at Air Force School Sulur was a successful event, marked by the presence of the enthusiastic participation of students and staff. The ceremony was graced by the Executive Director, Group Captain E. Srinivas, and Flying Officer Nandhini, who conducted the formal proceedings. The highlight of the ceremony was the formal investiture of the newly elected school captains.

Group Captain E. Srinivas and Flying Officer Nandhini officiated the proceedings, presenting badges and sashes to the respective captains. The newly appointed leaders took their positions on stage with pride and a sense of responsibility. The captains pledged their commitment to their duties, promising to uphold the values and traditions of the school.

The solemn oath-taking ceremony followed, where the captains vowed to lead with integrity, dedication, and enthusiasm. Their promises echoed the ethos of the school, emphasizing the importance of leadership and service.

Group Captain E. Srinivas addressed the gathering, emphasizing the significance of the roles the new captains would play in shaping the future of the school. He encouraged them to lead by example, inspiring their peers and contributing positively to the school community. Flying Officer Nandhini also shared words of wisdom. She congratulated the new leaders and wished them success in their endeavors.

The ceremony concluded with the national anthem. This event not only celebrated the achievements of the students but also reinforced the school's commitment to nurturing future leaders.
